2005 SENATE BILL 492

December 27, 2005 – Introduced by LAW REVISION COMMITTEE. Referred to Committee on Judiciary, Corrections and Privacy.

1     AN ACT relating to: renumbering and reorganizing various provisions of chapter
2             895 of the statutes and creating chapter 995 of the statutes. (Revisor’s Revision
3             Bill).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill is proposed under authority of s. 13.93 (1) (b) for the purpose of renaming chapter 895 of the statutes from “Miscellaneous General Provisions” to “Damages, Liability, and Miscellaneous Provisions Regarding Actions in Courts” to more accurately reflect the chapter’s contents, to reorganize statutes within chapter 895 of the statutes into subchapters, and to move unrelated material into a new chapter 995 of the statutes titled “Miscellaneous Statutes.” Chapter 895 was originally numbered as chapter 331 by Chapter 4, Laws of 1925, as part of Title XXX, Provisions Common to Actions and Proceedings in all Courts, indicating that the original intent was to create a chapter for miscellaneous provisions relating to court proceedings. Over time miscellaneous provisions unrelated to courts have been placed in chapter 895, apparently due to its title. This bill returns chapter 895 to being a chapter related to court proceedings and creates a new chapter for truly miscellaneous statutes unrelated to courts and not falling within the subject area of any other chapter. In accordance with current drafting style, commas before the last item in a series are added throughout this bill. “Which” is replaced by “that” where grammatically correct. Specific changes are explained in the NOTES provided by the revisor of statutes in the body of the bill.
