of the individual income tax personal exemption for certain older taxpayers.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, an individual income tax personal exemption exists in the amount of $700 for each taxpayer who is required to file an income tax return and $700 for the taxpayer's spouse, except if the spouse is filing separately or as a head of household. A taxpayer may also claim a $700 exemption for each dependent for whom he or she is entitled to claim an exemption under the Internal Revenue Code. In general, an additional exemption of $250 may be claimed by a taxpayer who has reached the age of 65 before the close of the taxable year to which his or her tax return relates.

This bill increases the additional exemption that may be claimed by taxpayers who reach the age of 70 or 75 before the close of the taxable year to which his or her tax return relates. Under the bill, in general, an additional exemption of $300 may be claimed by a taxpayer who has reached the age of 70 before the close of the taxable year to which his or her tax return relates and an additional exemption of $350 may be claimed by a taxpayer who has reached the age of 75 before the close of the taxable year to which his or her tax return relates.

This bill will be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions for a detailed analysis, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
