Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill increases the penalties for fleeing an officer.

Under current law, no operator of a vehicle, after having received a visual or audible signal from a traffic officer, federal law enforcement officer, or marked or unmarked police vehicle that the operator knows or reasonably should know is being operated by a law enforcement officer, may knowingly flee so as to endanger other vehicles or pedestrians. Under the bill:

1. The penalty for fleeing an officer is increased from a Class I felony to a Class H felony.

2. The penalty for fleeing an officer and causing bodily harm to another or damage to the property of another is increased from a Class H felony to a Class G felony.

3. The penalty for fleeing an officer and causing great bodily harm to another is increased from a Class F felony to a Class E felony, with a mandatory minimum of 1.5 years imprisonment.

4. The penalty for fleeing an officer and causing death to another is increased from a Class E felony to a Class D felony, with a mandatory minimum of 2.5 years imprisonment.

ASSEMBLY BILL 536

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report.
