Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection must allow all products and commodities produced or manufactured in this state that meet the standards established by the department to be included in the department’s promotional campaign that uses the phrase “Something Special from Wisconsin.”

This bill increases DATCP’s annual appropriation for the advertising and promotion of the Something Special from Wisconsin slogan, mark, and logo by $142,300 in each year of the 2023–25 fiscal biennium.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
