Note: This statute is constitutional. Voss v. State, 204 W 432, 236 NW 128.
In a prosecution for maliciously burning a dwelling house owned by the defendant, and the burning of household furnishings with intent to defraud the insurance company, resulting from an explosion and fire of conceded incendiary origin which occurred while the defendant was away on a two-day trip, the evidence is held insufficient to sustain a conviction, it being considered that, disregarding proof of motive, every act of the defendant relating to the offense was as consistent with her innocence as with her guilt, and that the evidence with respect to motive was not sufficient in connection with the remainder of the evidence to warrant the jury in finding the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Wittig v. State, 235 W 274, 292 NW 879.

343.02 Arson of buildings not dwellings. Any person who wilfully and maliciously sets fire to or burns or causes to be burned or who aids, counsels or procures the burning of any barn, stable, garage or other building, owned by himself or another, not a parcel of a dwelling house; or any shop, storehouse, warehouse, factory, mill or other building, owned by himself or another; or any church, meetinghouse, courthouse, workhouse, school, jail or other public building or any public bridge; shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than ten years.

Note: The words "other building" must be given a literal meaning and are not limited by the doctrine of noscitur a sociis. These words extend to and include a fishing shack. Boardman v. State, 203 W 173, 233 NW 556.

343.03 Arson of diverse structures and things. Any person who wilfully and maliciously sets fire to or burns or causes to be burned or who aids, counsels or procures the burning of any barrack, cock, crib, rick or stack of hay, corn, wheat, oats, barley or other grain or vegetable product of any kind; or any field of standing hay or grain of any kind; or any pile of coal, wood or other fuel; or any pile of planks, boards, posts, rails or other lumber; or any street car, railway car, ship, boat or other water craft, automobile or other motor vehicle; or any other personal property not herein specifically named, owned by another and of the value of twenty-five dollars or more, shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than three years.

343.04 Arson to defraud insurer. Any person who wilfully and with intent to injure or defraud the insurer sets fire to or burns or causes to be burned or who aids, counsels or procures the burning of any goods, wares, merchandise or other chattels or personal property of any kind, whether such property is owned by himself or another, which at the time is insured by any person or corporation against loss or damage by fire, shall upon conviction thereof be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than five years.

Note: See note to 343.01, citing Wittig v. State, 235 W 274, 292 NW 879.

343.05 Attempt at arson. (1) Any person who wilfully and maliciously attempts to set fire to or attempts to burn or to aid, counsel or procure the burning of any of the buildings or property mentioned in the foregoing sections, or who commits any act preliminary thereto or in furtherance thereof, shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than two years.

(2) The placing or distributing of any flammable, explosive or combustible material or substance or any device in any building or property mentioned in the foregoing sections in an arrangement or preparation with intent to eventually wilfully and maliciously set fire to or burn same, or to procure the setting fire to or burning of same, shall, for the purposes of sections 343.01 to 343.05, constitute an attempt to burn such building or property.

343.06 Arson; liability of husband or wife. The preceding sections of this chapter shall severally extend to a married woman who may commit either of the offenses therein described, though the property burnt or set fire to may belong partly or wholly to her husband; and said sections shall also severally apply to a married man, though the property burnt or set fire to may belong partly or wholly to his wife, and though said property may be occupied by such married man or married woman, or by such married man and wife as a residence.

Where such violation results in damage to persons or property in an amount of twenty-five dollars or more, such punishment shall be by a fine of not to exceed one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months. [1937 c. 182]

343.071 to 343.081 [Repealed by 1927 c. 29 s. 1]

343.09 Breaking house in night, being armed. Note: Counts of an information charging the defendant with breaking and entering a dwelling house in the nighttime with intent to commit adultery, and with intent to commit a felony, and with assaulting another lawfully therein, are held to state offenses under 343.09 and 343.10. State ex rel. Wagner v. Lee, 220 W 150, 264 NW 484.

343.10 Breaking, unarmed. Any person who shall break and enter any dwelling house in the nighttime, with such intent as is mentioned in section 343.09, or who, having entered with such intent, shall break such dwelling house in the nighttime, the offender not being armed, nor arming himself in such house with a dangerous weapon, nor making an assault upon any person then being lawfully therein, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than eight years nor less than three years.

343.11 Breaking office, car, etc., for felonious purposes. Any person who shall break and enter in the nighttime any office, shop, or warehouse, or any other building not adjoining or occupied with any dwelling house, or any ship, steamboat, vessel, railroad freight car, or passenger car, with the intention to commit the crime of murder, rape, robbery, larceny, or other felony shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than ten years, nor less than one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, provided that nothing herein shall be held to remit any penalty for offenses heretofore committed.

343.12 Entry at night, breaking at day. Any person who shall enter in the nighttime, without breaking, or shall break and enter in the daytime any dwelling house or any outhouse, thereto adjoining and occupied therewith, or any office, shop or warehouse or other building, or any ship, steamboat or vessel, railroad freight car or passenger car, with intent to commit the crime of murder, rape, robbery, larceny or other felony shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than three years nor less than one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year.

343.121 Burglary with explosives. (1) Any person who, with intent to commit crime, breaks and enters, either by day or by night, any building, whether inhabited or not, and opens or attempts to open any vault, safe, or other secure place by use of nitroglycerine, dynamite, gunpowder, or any other explosive, shall be deemed guilty of burglary with explosives.

(2) Any person duly convicted of burglary with explosives shall be punished by imprisonment for a term of not less than fifteen nor more than forty years.

343.122 Entering bank or trust company. Any person who, with intent to commit crime, breaks and enters by day or night, any bank or trust company building, whether inhabited or not, and opens or attempts to open any vault, safe or other secure place therein by the use of any means or method, including those specified in section 343.121, or who shall through intimidation, force or use of a dangerous weapon, or if any confederate present be aiding or abetting by such means, feloniously rob, steal, take or carry away from such building any money or other property which may be the subject of larceny, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not less than fifteen years nor more than forty years.

Note: The penalty prescribed by this section is not cruel or unusual punishment which is prohibited by the constitution. State v. Grulkowski, 205 W 164, 236 NW 523. In a prosecution for bank robbery, the evidence held to sustain a conviction. Ford v. State, 206 W 133, 238 NW 865.

343.13 Unlawful entry. Any unlawful entry of a dwelling house, bank, trust company or other building with intent to commit a felony shall be deemed a breaking and entering of such dwelling house, bank, trust company or other building within the meaning of sections 343.09 to 343.122.

Note: Evidence that accused, without license to enter, broke screen door, forced it open by pulling out hook, forcibly pushed resident barring his entry aside, and entered and searched house, held sufficient to show unlawful breaking and entry. Evidence that accused, a married man, upon entering dwelling, stated that he wanted to have sexual intercourse with resident's housekeeper and that he searched house for housekeeper showed intent to commit "felony." Wagner v. State, 213 W 79, 259 NW 826.

343.131 Possession of burglarious tools. Any person who shall knowingly have in his possession any nitroglycerine, or other explosive, thermite, engine, machine, tool, implement, device, chemical, or substance designed and adapted for cutting, or burning through, forcing, or breaking open any building, room, vault, safe, or other depository, knowing the same to be designed and adapted for such purpose, with intent to use or employ the same therefor in order to steal from any building, room, vault, safe, or other depository any money or other property, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than ten years or in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Note: Although they may be within the statute under some circumstances, simple tools such as a small screwdriver, pencil-type flashlight, metal hammer, chisel, and whetstone are not as a matter of law tools "designed and adapted for cutting, or burning through, forcing, or breaking open any building, room or vault," within 343.131. Diefenbach v. State, 245 W 468, 14 NW (2d) 908.

343.14 Larceny; stealing lead pipe; penalty. Any person who shall break and enter at any time, any meetinghouse, church, courthouse, townhouse, college, academy or other building erected and employed for public use and steal therein the money or property of another, or shall steal lead pipe from any building partially constructed, or shall commit the crime of larceny in any dwelling house, office, shop, bank, warehouse or other building, ship, steamboat, vessel, railroad freight car or passenger car by stealing therein the money or property of another, if the money or property so stolen shall exceed the value of twenty dollars, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than three years nor less than one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year nor less than six months or by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars; and if the money or property so stolen shall not exceed the value of twenty dollars he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

343.17 Larceny; property; values; bailee; gas. Any person, who shall commit the crime of larceny by stealing the property of another, any money, goods or chattels, or any bank note, bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, order, certificate, book of account, conveyance of real estate, bill of sale, mortgage, valuable contract, receipt, release, defeasance, railroad passenger ticket, ticket of admission to any place, any writ, process, public record, or any instrument in writing whereby any demand, right or obligation is created, increased, diminished or extinguished, or who shall wrongfully divert, and apply to his own use or wrongfully deprive the owner of any gas, water, steam or electricity, or any personal property whatever, if the value thereof shall exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than twenty-five years nor less than ten years; if the value thereof shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars and shall exceed ten thousand dollars, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than twenty years nor less than five years; if the value thereof shall not exceed ten thousand dollars and shall exceed one thousand dollars he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than ten years nor less than one year; if the value thereof shall exceed one hundred dollars, shall, unless it be otherwise

Whoever being a bailee of any chattel, money or valuable security shall fraudulently take or fraudulently convert the same to his own use or the use of any person other than the owner thereof, although he shall not break bulk or otherwise determine the bailment, shall be guilty of larceny, and may be convicted thereof on an indictment or information for larceny, and upon such conviction be punished as hereinbefore prescribed. [1939 c. 401]

Note: In the instant prosecution for the larceny of two automobiles, an instruction to find the defendants guilty if the jury were satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that said automobiles were taken and converted by the defendants for their use with intent to steal said automobiles was a sufficient instruction on the elements of larceny, in the absence of any request for further instructions on that subject. Schroeder v. State, 222 W 251, 267 NW 899.

In prosecution for larceny of a gambling device, refusal to submit question of value of device held reversible error, since degree of offense depended upon value of article stolen. State v. Clementi, 224 W 145, 272 NW 29.

Where A employs B in one county and authorizes him to sign checks on A for a specific purpose, and B goes into adjoining county and signs check on A for his own purpose, contrary to his authority, B is guilty of either embezzlement or larceny if check is paid. Venue in prosecution should be laid in county where check was signed and delivered. Embezzlement may be prosecuted either under 343.17 or 343.20. Prosecution under 343.17 is suggested so that conviction for larceny may result if either theft or embezzlement of money is proved. 28 Atty. Gen. 426.

343.171 [Renumbered section 94.34 by 1935 c. 550 s. 59]

343.172 Larceny of property in nature of realty. Any person who, by a trespass, with intent to steal, shall take and carry away anything of value which is parcel of the realty or annexed thereto and the property of the owner of the realty, against the will of such owner, shall be guilty of larceny and shall be punished as provided in section 343.17 for the larceny of personal property of the same value as that so taken and carried away. The same courts shall have jurisdiction under this section as would have jurisdiction if such property were personal property.

343.173 Stealing birds, dogs or beasts. Any person who shall wrongfully take, entice or carry away, without the consent of the owner thereof, any bird ordinarily kept in a state of confinement, or any dog or beast of any value, not the subject of larceny at common law, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year nor less than ten days, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than five dollars.

343.174 Larceny of domestic animals. Any person who shall steal, take and carry away, irrespective of value, any domestic fowl or poultry, pig, calf, horse, colt or other domestic animal, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the county jail.

343.175 Fraudulent use of gas, electricity, water and steam. (1) Any person who wilfully, with intent to injure or defraud:

(a) Connects a tube, pipe, wire or other instrument or contrivance with a pipe or wire used for the conducting or supplying illuminating gas, fuel, natural gas, water or electricity in such a manner as to supply such gas, water or electricity to any burner, orifice, lamp, fixture, appliance or motor where the same is or can be burned or used without passing through the meter or instrument provided for registering the quantity consumed, or uses such gas, water or electricity obtained by reason of the making of such connection;

(b) Or obstructs, removes, alters, injures or prevents the action of a meter or other instrument used to measure or register the quantity of illuminating fuel, natural gas, water or electricity consumed in or about any grounds, building or buildings thereon, or at an orifice or burner, lamp, fixture, appliance or motor, or by a consumer or other person or a person other than a state inspector or deputy inspector of gas meters or an employe of the company or utility owning or having supervisory control of any gas, water or electric meter, who wilfully shall detach or disconnect such meter, or make or report any test of, or examine for the purpose of testing any such meter so detached or disconnected;

(c) Or in any manner whatever changes, extends or alters any service or other pipe, wire or attachment of any kind, connecting or through which natural or artificial gas or water or electricity is furnished from the gas mains or pipes, water mains or pipes, or wires of any person, company, corporation or utility without first procuring from said person, company, corporation or utility written permission to make such change, extension or alterations or uses gas, water or electricity obtained by reason of such changes, extensions or alterations;

(d) Or makes any connection or reconnection with the gas mains, service pipes, water mains, water pipes or wires of any person, company, corporation or utility furnishing to consumers natural or artificial gas or water or electricity; or turns on or off, or in any manner interferes with any valve or stopcock or other appliances belonging to such person, company, corporation or utility and connected with its service or other pipes or wires, or enlarges the orifice of mixers, or uses natural gas for heating purposes except through mixers or uses electricity, water or artificial gas for any purpose before it has passed through an instrument for measuring the quantity consumed, without first procuring from such person, company, corporation or utility a written permit to turn on or off such stopcock or valve, or to make such connections or reconnections or to enlarge the orifice of mixers or to use for heating purposes without mixers, or to interfere with the valves, stopcocks, wires or other appliances of such person, company, corporation or utility as the case may be;

(e) Or retains possession of or refuses to deliver any mixer or mixers, meter or meters, lamp or lamps or other appliances which may be or may have been loaned or rented to them by any person, company, corporation or utility for the purpose of furnishing gas, water, electricity or power through the same, or who sells, loans or in any manner disposes of the same to any person or persons other than the said person, company, corporation or utility entitled to the possession of the same;

(f) Or sets on fire any gas escaping from wells, broken or leaking mains, pipes, valves or other appliances used by any person, company or corporation in conveying gas to consumers, or interferes in any manner with the wells, pipes, mains, gate-boxes, valves, stopcocks, wires, cables, conduits, or any other appliances, machinery or property of any person, company, corporation or utility engaged in furnishing gas, water or electricity to consumers unless employed by or acting under the authority and direction of such person, company or corporation;

(g) Or opens or causes to be opened or reconnects or causes to be reconnected any valve lawfully closed or disconnected by a district steam corporation;

(h) Or turns on steam or causes it to be turned on, or causes steam to reenter any premises when the same has been lawfully stopped from entering such premises, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(2) The existence of any of the conditions with reference to meters, or attachments described in subsection (1), is presumptive evidence that the person to whom gas, electricity, water or steam is at the time being furnished by or through such meters or attachments, has with intent to defraud, created or caused to be created with reference to such meters or attachments, the condition so existing; provided that the mere turning off of the stopcock to a gas meter shall not be deemed such presumptive evidence. [1935 c. 262]

Cross Reference: For similar prohibitions relative to electricity, gas, water and steam, see 98.25 (2) and 343.17.

343.18 Operation of motor vehicle without owner's consent. Any person who shall take, use and operate any automobile, motor cycle, or other similar motor vehicle upon any public highway of this state without the consent of the owner thereof shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail or workhouse not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Note: A prosecution and conviction of defendants on a charge either of the larceny of two certain automobiles or of having taken, used and operated such automobiles on the highway without the owners' consent does not bar a prosecution and conviction for the other offense, since each is a distinct statutory offense and each contains distinct elements which are not included in the other. Schroeder v. State, 222 W 251, 267 NW 899.

Under this section person may be convicted in county where he operated car although taking actually occurred in another county. 22 Atty. Gen. 904.

Sentence to state prison under this section must be construed as indeterminate sentence from one to five years in view of 359.07, which provides that minimum shall not be less than one year. 25 Atty. Gen. 717.

343.181 [Repealed by 1935 c. 427]

343.182 [Repealed by 1929 c. 454 s. 1; 1929 c. 516 s. 14]

343.183 Destruction of manufacturer's serial number. (1) Any person who removes, defaces, alters, destroys or changes the manufacturer's serial number upon any automobile, motor cycle or other manufactured article for the purpose of concealing or misrepresenting the identity of such manufactured article, and any person who buys, sells, disposes of, conceals, receives or has in his possession any automobile, motor cycle, or manufactured article with knowledge that the manufacturer's serial number thereof has been removed, defaced, altered or destroyed for the purpose of concealing or misrepresenting the identity of said manufactured article, shall be deemed guilty of an offense under this law and shall be fined not more than $200 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) The fact that a person buys, sells, disposes of, conceals, receives, or has in his possession any such manufactured article from which the manufacturers' serial number has been removed, defaced, altered or destroyed, shall be prima facie evidence that such person has knowledge of such removal, defacement, alteration, or destruction, and that the same was done for the purpose of concealment or misrepresenting the identity of such manufactured article.

343.19 Receiving stolen property. Any person who shall buy, receive, conceal or aid in the concealment of stolen money, goods or property, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall receive the same punishment as is hereinbefore provided for the stealing of such money, goods or property; and in any prosecution for such offense it shall not be necessary to aver or prove that the person who stole the same has been convicted.

Note: In a prosecution under this section for receiving stolen property, knowing the same to be stolen, it is essential to a conviction that the jury shall find beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant receiver knew or had a guilty belief that the property was stolen; and it is not sufficient that the evidence convinces the jury beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant ought to have known that the property was stolen, but it must go further and satisfy them that he did know or believe. Oosterwyk v. State, 242 W 398, 8 NW (2d) 346.

343.20 Embezzlement; penalty. (1) Any officer, agent, clerk, employe or servant of this state or of any county, town, school district, city, village or other municipal corporation therein, or of any banking, railroad, insurance or telegraph company or other corporation, or of any joint stock company or association, or in the service or employment thereof, who, by virtue of such office or employment, shall have the possession or custody of, or who shall be entrusted with the safe-keeping, the disbursement, investment or payment of any money or fund, or with the safe-keeping, sale, carrying or delivering of any goods, wares, merchandise, produce, lumber or any other property or thing which is the subject of larceny, belonging to or under the care or control of the state, or such municipal or other corporation, or in which the state or such corporation has an interest, or any factor, carrier, warehouseman, storage, forwarding or commission merchant, or any bailee, executor, administrator, guardian, or any trustee, agent, clerk, attorney, messenger, employe or servant of any private person, corporation, copartnership or association, except apprentices and other persons under the age of sixteen years, who, by virtue of his business or employment, shall have the care, custody, or possession of or shall be entrusted with the safe-keeping, disbursement, investment or payment of any money, or shall have the care, custody or possession of or shall be entrusted with the safe-keeping, carrying, sale or delivery of any goods, wares, merchandise, produce, lumber or any other property or thing which is the subject of larceny, belonging to such other person, corporation, copartnership or association, shall embezzle or fraudulently convert to his own use or to the use of any other person except the owner thereof, or shall take, carry away or secrete, with intent to convert to his own use or to the use of any other person except the owner thereof any such money, fund, goods, wares, merchandise, produce, lumber or any other property or thing shall be punished, if the money or property so embezzled shall exceed the value of twenty-five thousand dollars, by imprisonment in the state prison not more than twenty-five years nor less than ten years, and if the money or property so embezzled shall not exceed the value of twenty-five thousand dollars and shall exceed the value of ten thousand dollars, by imprisonment in the state prison not more than twenty years nor less than five years or if the money or property so embezzled shall not exceed the value of ten thousand dollars and shall exceed the value of one thousand dollars, by imprisonment in the state prison not more than ten years nor less than one year, and if the money or property so embezzled shall exceed the value of one hundred dollars and shall not exceed the value of one thousand dollars, by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years nor less than one year, and if the money or property so embezzled shall not exceed the value of one hundred dollars and shall exceed the value of twenty dollars by imprisonment in the state prison or county jail not more than one year nor less than six months or by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, and if the money or property so embezzled shall not exceed the value of twenty dollars by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(2) Any person who is a member of any copartnership or one of two or more beneficial owners of any property specified in this section or of any property or thing which is the subject of larceny, who shall embezzle or fraudulently convert to his own use or to the use of any other person, except the other members of such copartnership or the other beneficial owners of such property or thing, or who shall take, carry away or secrete with intent to convert to his own use or to the use of any other person except as aforesaid, any such property or thing shall be punished as provided in this section the same as if he had not been or was not a member of such copartnership or one of such beneficial owners. The offense of embezzlement may be prosecuted and punished in any county in which the person charged had possession of the property or thing alleged to have been embezzled.

Note: The terms of the sentences being within those authorized by statute, the supreme court is without power to reduce them although the circumstances might have justified greater leniency. Mueller v. State, 208 W 550, 243 NW 411.

Although criminal responsibility is not imposed upon a director merely because he failed to exercise care and prudence, there is sufficient participation to impose such responsibility when there is an act or omission on his part which logically leads to the inference that he has had a share in the wrongful acts of the corporation which constitute the offense. State ex rel. Kropf v. Gilbert, 213 W 196, 251 NW 478.

If the embezzlement charge consists in failure to account, the venue should be laid in the county where the defendant was under obligation to account, or declined to do so upon proper demand. Podell v. State, 228 W 513, 279 NW 653.

The subsequent restoration of the fund embezzled or the payment of the shortage does not expunge or conclusively contradict the guilt of one who has completed the embezzlement, and the repayment of money unlawfully converted is material only so far as it may bear on the defendant's intent to defraud. McGeever v. State, 239 W 37, 300 NW 485.

In a prosecution of a clerk of courts for embezzlement of funds received by him in his official capacity, based on an audit showing shortages in his accounts, the evidence was insufficient to sustain a verdict of guilty, in that the evidence merely showed poor bookkeeping and that the defendant had receipted for money never received by him, and there was no evidence of any criminal motive or intent nor of attempted concealment by false entries or otherwise, hence the trial court properly set aside the verdict. State v. Witte, 243 W 423, 10 NW (2d) 117.

Where intent to defraud the owner is an essential element, which must be duly established in order to convict a defendant of embezzlement, the jury should be instructed to that effect when instructions on that subject are properly requested. Although containing no specific instruction on the element of intent to defraud, instructions under which the jury could not convict the defendant of embezzlement unless duly satisfied that the defendant had received the money, and that he had received it, not as a loan to him, but for the purpose of delivering it to a third person, and that after so receiving it he had appropriated the money for his personal use, were not prejudicial. State v. Legg, 243 W 449, 10 NW (2d) 137.

Prosecution for crime of embezzlement must be in county where person charged had possession of property or thing alleged to have been embezzled and not in county where demand was made. 21 Atty. Gen. 1051.

343.21 Evidence. The refusal or wilful neglect of any officer or other person named in section 343.20 to pay over any moneys or to deliver any property in his care, custody or possession, by virtue of his office or employment upon the demand thereof by the proper person, copartnership, corporation or authority entitled to receive the same, or as required by law, or the selling, mortgaging or pledging of any such property, or the loaning or depositing of any such moneys, by such officer or other person, for his own gain, profit or advantage without special authority shall in each case be prima facie evidence of the embezzlement thereof; and every public officer shall promptly pay over, as required by law, the same moneys received and held by him by virtue of his office and the whole thereof, and he shall not be allowed to set up or plead any account or claim for his services or fees as an offset or counterclaim against such payment.

Note: Where note is not given in good faith but merely as part of a fraudulent scheme for obtaining possession of money from another, giving of note does not conclusively determine that transaction was a loan so as to preclude prosecution for embezzlement. Hanser v. State, 217 W 537, 259 NW 418.

In a prosecution of a superintendent of a county asylum for embezzlement of county funds, the evidence was sufficient to sustain a finding of "conversion." State v. Davidson, 242 W 406, 8 NW (2d) 275.

343.22 Prosecution of officers. Any person who shall demand of any officer any sum of money received and held by such officer in his official capacity, and which he shall be entitled to demand and receive, and he shall be unable to obtain the same by reason of such money having been embezzled by such officer, and who shall neglect or refuse more than thirty days after such demand to make complaint against such officer for the purpose of having him prosecuted criminally for such embezzlement shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

343.23 Refusal to pay in money. The refusal of any officer to pay any demand in money, when the sum so demanded was actually received by such officer in good faith in checks, drafts, certificates of deposit or currency which may have depreciated in value, provided payment be tendered in the checks, drafts, certificates of deposit or currency received by such officer, shall not be evidence of the embezzlement of such money so demanded.

343.24 False pretenses; personating another; penalty. Any person who shall falsely personate or represent another and in such assumed character shall receive any money or other property whatever intended to be delivered to the party so personated, with intent to convert the same to his own use, shall, if the money or property so received shall exceed in value the sum of one hundred dollars, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years nor less than one year, or in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, nor less than two hundred dollars; and if the value of the money or property so received shall not exceed one hundred dollars, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or county jail not more than one year or by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

343.241 Hired horses and vehicles; penalty for wilful injury. Any person who shall obtain for hire from the keeper of a livery stable or any other person the possession or use of a horse or other draft animal or any vehicle, and who shall recklessly, wantonly or by gross negligence injure or destroy or cause, suffer, allow or permit the same or any part thereof to be injured or destroyed, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

343.25 Obtaining money by false pretenses; penalty. Any person who shall designedly, by any false pretenses or by any privy or false token and with intent to defraud, obtain from any other person any money, goods, wares, merchandise, or other property, or shall obtain with such intent the signature of any person to any written instrument, the false making whereof would be punishable as forgery, shall if the amount of money or other property so received or the face value of such written instrument shall exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years nor less than one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or less than two hundred dollars, and if the amount of money or property so received or face value of such written instrument so procured, shall not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or county jail not more than one year, or by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Note: Evidence that defendant with intent to procure credit filed deliberately false statement of assets and received credit from banks thereon, to prejudice of banks, did not sustain felony charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, where there was no evidence of intent to defraud and no obtaining of money, goods, wares and merchandise such as is necessary to maintenance of felony charge. Pepin v. State ex rel. Chambers, 217 W 563, 259 NW 410.

This section does not include obtaining of credit. Lochner v. State, 218 W 472, 261 NW 227.

It is not necessary, to constitute the offense of obtaining money or other property by false pretenses, that the defrauded person relied solely on the pretense in parting with his property, it being sufficient if the pretense was one of the material matters relied on, as where a defrauded vendor of an automobile relied both on a down payment, in the form of a worthless check, and a conditional sales contract. Whitmore v. State, 238 W 73, 298 NW 194.

Evidence that the defendant in obtaining a loan for which he was to give a mortgage represented the premises to be presently unincumbered and eligible for a first mortgage, was sufficient, as showing a false representation of fact, to support a prosecution for obtaining money by false pretenses, even though by resort to the office of register of deeds the true state of the title could have been ascertained, hence was sufficient to warrant holding the defendant for trial. Frank v. State ex rel. Meiers, 244 W 653, 12 NW (2d) 923.

One who obtains check by false pretenses may be guilty of violating 343.25, though check was not cashed. One instrumental in getting another to obtain property by false pretenses may be indicted as accessory before fact. 24 Atty. Gen. 145.

343.251 Certain badges; penalty for unauthorized wearing. Any person who shall wilfully wear the insignia, rosette, or badge or any imitation thereof, of the military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, the Grand Army of the Republic, the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, or the Military Order of Foreign Wars, or of the American Legion, or of the Thirty-second Division Veteran Association, or of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States, Knights of Columbus, Odd Fellows, Free Masons, Knights of Pythias, or of any other society, order, or organization, operating under the lodge system, of ten years' standing in the state of Wisconsin, or of any duly incorporated fraternal, social, or service organization, or shall wilfully use the same to obtain aid or assistance thereby within this state, or shall wilfully use the name of such society, order or organization, the titles of its officers, or its insignia, unless he shall be entitled to use or wear the same under the constitution, by-laws, rules and regulations thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than thirty days or by fine not exceeding twenty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

343.252 Police badges and uniforms; unauthorized use. (1) Any person who shall wear the badge or insignia, or any imitation thereof, of any police department in this state, or use the same to obtain aid or assistance within this state, unless he shall be entitled to use or wear the same under appointment made by virtue of law, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than thirty days, or by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Any person not regularly appointed a member of any police department in this state who shall wear a uniform, or any part of a uniform, of the color and style adopted by any police department, shall be punished for each such offense by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than five days nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The district attorney of the county in which any such offense is committed shall bring an action in the name of the state against the offender.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting persons of the theatrical profession from wearing such uniform in any playhouse or theater while actually engaged in following said profession.

343.253 Mendicant impostors. Any person engaged in soliciting, procuring or attempting to solicit or procure money or other thing of value, by falsely pretending and representing himself to be blind, deaf, dumb, without arms or legs, or to be otherwise physically deficient or to be otherwise suffering from any physical defect or infirmity shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than ninety days or by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or both such imprisonment and fine.

343.254 Discrimination against national guard. No association or corporation, constituted or organized for the purpose of promoting the success of the trade, employment or business of the members thereof, shall by any constitution, rule, by-law, resolution, vote or regulation, discriminate against any member of the national guard of the state of Wisconsin, because of such membership in respect to the eligibility of such member of the said national guard to membership in such association or corporation, or in respect to his right to retain said last mentioned membership. It is the purpose of this section and section 21.14 to protect a member of the said national guard from disadvantage in his means of livelihood and liberty therein but not to give him any preference or advantage on account of his membership in said national guard. A person who aids in enforcing any such provisions against a member of the said national guard with the intent to discriminate against him because of such membership, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $20, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days nor more than 20 days.

343.26 False receipts; penalty. Any wharfinger, master of a vessel or boat, or any officer, agent, or clerk of any railroad, express, or transportation company who shall issue any receipt, bill of lading, voucher, or other document to any person purporting to be the owner thereof, or as security for any loan or indebtedness for any goods, wares, merchandise, lumber, timber, grain, flour, or other property, produce, or commodity, unless at the time of issuing the same such property shall have been actually received or shipped according to the terms and meaning of such receipt, bill of lading, voucher, or other document so issued, or who shall sell or incumber, ship, transfer, or in any manner remove beyond his immediate control, any such property so received, contrary to the terms and meaning of such receipt, bill of lading, voucher, or other document, without the consent of the holder thereof, or who shall deliver any such property or any part thereof, except to the person holding such receipt, bill of lading, voucher, or other document, and upon the surrender and cancellation thereof, or in case of any partial delivery of such property, upon the indorsement thereon of such partial delivery, unless required by legal process, or shall issue any second or duplicate receipt or bill of lading, for any such property, while any former receipt or bill of lading for any such property or any part thereof shall be outstanding and uncanceled, without writing across the face thereof the word "duplicate," shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than three years nor less than one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

343.27 Casting away ship. Any person who shall wilfully cast away, burn, sink or otherwise destroy any ship, steamboat or vessel with intent to injure or defraud any owner of such vessel, steamboat or ship, or the owner of any property laden on board the same, or any insurer of such vessel or property or of any part thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than ten years nor less than three years.

343.28 Fitting out ship to destroy. Any person who shall lade, equip or fit out, or assist in lading, equipping or fitting out any steamboat, ship or vessel with the intent that the same shall be wilfully cast away, burnt, sunk or otherwise destroyed, to injure or defraud any owner or insurer of such vessel or of any property laden on board the same shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years nor less than two years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars nor less than five hundred dollars.

laden on board such vessel, with intent to injure or defraud any insurer of such vessel or property or of any part thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than three years nor less than one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars nor less than three hundred dollars.

343.30 False protest. Any master, officer or mariner of any ship, steamboat or vessel who shall make or cause to be made or shall swear to any false affidavit or protest, or any owner or other person concerned in such vessel or in the goods or property laden on board such vessel who shall procure any such false affidavit or protest to be made or shall exhibit the same, with intent to injure, deceive or defraud any insurer of such ship, steamboat or vessel, or of the goods or property laden on board the same, or any other person, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years nor less than two years, or by fine not exceeding two thousand dollars nor less than five hundred dollars.

343.31 Gross fraud. Any person who shall be convicted of any gross fraud or cheat at common law shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than four years nor less than one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars nor less than fifty dollars.

Any person who shall sell or incumber any personal property upon which a lien for labor or services exists, knowing that such lien is unsatisfied, without informing the purchaser or incumbrancer of the existence of the lien, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than two years or by fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine.

Note: President of bank may be prosecuted for his knowledge is not imputed to bank in case of not informing bank of incumbrance transaction between himself and bank. 20 on real estate which he mortgaged to bank; Atty. Gen. 459.

(1) Any physician or surgeon who shall claim or demand and collect and receive any money or other thing of value as compensation for his professional services in treating or operating upon a patient who was induced or advised by another physician or surgeon to submit to such treatment or operation, and who shall have previously paid or delivered, or shall thereafter pay or deliver, any money or other consideration to such other physician or surgeon or his agent, as compensation for such inducement or advice, or as compensation for assistance in the case, or any physician or surgeon, giving such inducement or advice, who shall, as compensation therefor, or as compensation for assistance in the case, demand, receive or retain any money or other consideration directly or indirectly from the physician or surgeon treating or operating upon the patient so induced or advised, shall be guilty of a criminal fraud and upon a conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months. Such conviction shall operate also as an annulment of the license held by the convicted person to practice as such physician or surgeon.

(2) Any physician or surgeon, not a citizen of Wisconsin, who shall in any adjoining state treat or operate upon a citizen of Wisconsin, and who shall have previously paid or delivered, or shall thereafter pay or deliver, any money or other thing of value to another physician or surgeon as compensation for inducing or advising such patient to submit to such treatment or operation, or as compensation for assistance in the case, is forbidden to practice medicine or surgery within this state or to participate in this state with other physicians and surgeons in consultations. any similar service whatever or who has given or may give any medical, surgical or any similar advice or assistance to such patient. Any violation of this provision shall be punishable by the penalty prescribed in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) All prosecutions under this section shall be in the circuit court.

Note: Fee splitting by physicians is not permitted even where more than one physician takes part in operation but each physician must render his bill direct to patient. 24 Atty. Gen. 580.

343.329 [Repealed by 1945 c. 98]

343.33 [Renumbered section 98.25 by 1935 c. 550 s. 314]

343.33 Use of gaseous compounds in containers. (1) No person, firm or corporation, excepting the manufacturer thereof or persons authorized by said manufacturer so to do, shall sell or offer for sale or deliver, carbon dioxide, acetylene, oxygen, hydrogen or any other gas or gaseous compound, shipped, consigned or delivered in steel containers or containers made of other metal, unless such containers shall bear upon the surface thereof, in plainly legible characters, the name, initials or trade-mark of the manufacturer.

(5) Any person who shall fail to comply with any of the foregoing provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [1939 c. 136]

(2) In any test for the ascertainment of the fineness of the gold or its alloy in any such article, according to the foregoing standards, the part of the gold or of its alloy taken for the test, analysis or assay shall be such part or portion as does not contain or have attached thereto any solder or alloy of inferior fineness used for brazing or uniting the parts of said article.

(3) In addition to the foregoing tests and standards, that the actual fineness of the entire quantity of gold and of its alloys contained in any article mentioned in this section (except watch cases and flat ware), including all solder or alloy of inferior metal used for brazing or uniting the parts of the article (all such gold, alloys and solder being assayed as one piece) shall not be less by more than one karat, than the fineness indicated by the mark stamped, branded, engraved or imprinted upon such article, or upon any tag, card or label attached thereto, or upon any box, package, cover or wrapper in which said article is incased or inclosed.

branded, engraved or imprinted thereon, or upon any tag, card or label attached thereto or upon any box, package, cover or wrapper in which said article is incased or inclosed, the words "sterling silver" or "sterling," or any colorable imitation thereof, unless nine hundred twenty-five one-thousandths of the component parts of the metal appearing or purporting to be silver, of which such article is manufactured are pure silver, subject to the qualifications hereinafter set forth, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) In the case of all such articles there shall be allowed a divergence in fineness of four one-thousandths parts from the foregoing standards.

343.333 Misbranding of coin silver articles.
