- (a) Second circuit, 14 branches.
- (b) Ninth circuit, 3 branches.
- (c) Fourteenth circuit, 2 branches.
- (d) Twenty-second circuit, 2 branches.

(2) Each such branch constitutes a circuit court with all the powers and jurisdiction possessed by circuit courts in circuits having one judge only, and may be designated in all papers and proceedings either by its respective number or by the name of its presiding judge, except that in the second circuit, branches 11 and 12 shall be designated as the criminal court branches.

History: 1961 c. 33; 1963 c. 399.

252.016 Second circuit; domestic conciliation. (1) APPLICATION OF SECTION. This section shall apply only to the second judicial circuit.

(2) JUDGES CONFER, MAKE RULES; FAMILY COURT BRANCH. (a) The judges shall meet and divide the business of the whole circuit, apportioning to each branch its due portion thereof, and to that end they may make such rules and institute such measures as they shall determine will promote justice and expedite business.

(b) The said judges shall for periods of not less than one year designate 2 or more of their number who shall devote their time primarily to divorce litigation and to such other work as is incidental thereto and which is generally described as the work of a family or domestic relations court; and the branches presided over by the judges so designated shall be known as the "Family Court Branches." The judges of such branches shall meet from time to time and divide their work, apportioning to each branch its due portion thereof. In case of the absence, sickness or other disability of either of such judges other judges shall be designated to assist temporarily in the performance of the work of such family court.

(c) All suits, actions, and proceedings in said circuit court arising as follows:

1. Under ch. 245 relating to marriage;
2. Under ch. 247 relating to divorce;
3. Pertaining to the determination of the custody of children under 18 years of age upon writs of habeas corpus;
4. Pertaining to all family and parental affairs not specifically vested in some other court or branch thereof in the county; shall be first assigned to the 2 family court branches as may be determined by rules of court.

(d) Either of said judges of said family court branches shall have the power and authority in his discretion to refer for disposition any matter before said branch for which there has been a warrant issued to any court otherwise having jurisdiction over such matter.

(3) COURT ROOM; OFFICES; SALARY FROM COUNTY. The county board shall provide suitable court rooms and offices, the sheriff shall provide the necessary deputy sheriffs as attending officers and the clerk of the circuit court shall provide a sufficient number of deputy clerks for all the judges and branches of said court. The county shall pay to each such judge a salary of $1,000 per annum and may pay to each judge an additional $1,000 per annum, payable monthly out of the county treasury, in addition to the salary paid him out of the state treasury and any amount paid him by authority of s. 252.071.

(4) DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY CONCILIATION. (a) There is created a department of family conciliation. Said department shall be under the direction and supervision of a director of family conciliation. Said director, through his respective assistants, shall:

1. Receive all marital complaints and make a proper disposition thereof;
2. Make investigations of the facts upon which to base warrants in the cases hereinbefore specified and in all other matters duly referred to said department;
3. Exercise such supervision in connection with the exercise by said court of its jurisdiction as the judges thereof may duly order.

(b) All persons in this department shall keep such records as may be provided by the rules of the judges of the family court branches of said court. Whenever the judges of said family court branches deem publication of matters before them contrary to public policy they may by order close the files thereof and make such other orders in their discretion as may be in the interest of children in such matters and the public morals.

(c) Said department of family conciliation shall have such men and women investigators as may from time to time be authorized by the county board of supervisors of such county. Said investigators shall be appointed by the joint action of the judges of the family court branches of the circuit court under the laws governing civil service in such county.

(e) The county board of supervisors of such county shall provide for such assistants, stenographic and otherwise, as shall be necessary to assist the director of family conciliation in carrying out the purpose of subs. (4) to (6) particularly in regard to the proper disposal of marital complaints. Such director and all other persons in said department shall be appointed by the judges of the family court branches of the circuit court under the laws governing civil service in such county, except in cases otherwise expressly provided for.

(f) All public officers in said county shall refer all domestic complaints made to them to said director of the department of domestic conciliation who shall dispose of all matters before it in proper manner.

(5) SECOND CIRCUIT EQUIPMENT. The board of supervisors of said county shall furnish said courts and said department of family conciliation, the judges, officers and employes thereof with suitable accommodations, adequately centralized and consolidated, and with the necessary furniture and supplies and make provision for its necessary expenses and operation.

(6) CIVIL SERVICE. The board of supervisors and county civil service commission shall make suitable reclassifications in positions in said county to accomplish the purpose of subs. (4) to (6).

252.017 Administration of work in multi-branch courts; grand jury. In circuits in which there are 2 or more branches, the judges may provide for the distribution of the work and assignment of cases among branches except that in the second circuit, branches 11 and 12 shall be designated as the criminal court branches and all cases specified in s. 252.015 for the second circuit criminal branch jurisdiction including all appeals from convictions in criminal actions and from ordinances and traffic forfeiture violations from the county court of Milwaukee county, and all commitments and transfers for trial in case of crimes and misdemeanors not triable in said county court branches shall be assigned by the clerk to those branches and shall be reassigned to another branch only in case of disqualification, illness or vacation of the judges or congestion or vacancies in branches 11 and 12. The judges of said second circuit criminal court branches 11 and 12 shall allocate the work of said branches and all assignments of work to said branches by the clerk shall be subject to the approval of said judges. No grand jury shall hereafter be drawn or summoned for the circuit court of Milwaukee county unless either judge of the criminal court branches thereof shall make and file with the clerk an order in writing directing a grand jury to be summoned, and specifying the time at which such grand jury shall appear before the court.

History: 1961 c. 33, 495, 642.

252.03 Jurisdiction of circuit courts. The circuit courts have the general jurisdiction prescribed for them by the constitution and have power to issue all writs, process and commissions provided therein or by the statutes, or which may be necessary to the due execution of the powers vested in them. They have power to hear and determine, within their respective circuits, all civil and criminal actions and proceedings unless exclusive jurisdiction is given to some other court; and they have all the powers, according to the usages of courts of law and equity, necessary to the full and complete jurisdiction of the causes and parties and the full and complete administration of justice, and to carry into effect their judgments, orders and other determinations, subject to re-examination by the supreme court as provided by law. Said courts and the judges thereof have power to award all such writs, process and commissions, throughout the state, returnable in the proper county.

History: 1961 c. 495.

252.031 Temporary duty. A circuit judge may act as a circuit judge in another circuit or as a county judge on the written request of the judge of said court; and, when designated and assigned to so act by the chief justice of the supreme court or other designated justice, shall do so. While acting temporarily in another circuit or as a county judge, a circuit judge has the power to hold court, try cases and exercise all the authority of the presiding judge.

History: 1961 c. 261.

252.04 Writs, how issued; certiorari. All writs issued from the circuit court shall be in the name of the state of Wisconsin, shall bear date the day they are issued, be attested in the name of the judge of the circuit in which issued, and if there be no such judge then in the name of the chief justice of the supreme court, be returnable on the first day of the term next succeeding the date of their issue, unless otherwise directed by law, by the judge or by rule of court, be signed by the clerk, sealed with the seal of the court and directed to some officer or person authorized to serve or execute the same. All writs of certiorari issued to review any action taken by any county board, town board, common council of any city or board of trustees of any village, or any record lawfully in the custody of any county clerk, town clerk, city or village clerk may be addressed to and served upon the proper county clerk, town clerk, city clerk or village clerk, respectively, who shall make return thereto.

In the absence of special statutory provisions, it must appear, before the court will grant a writ of certiorari, that there has been some error committed, that the error has caused substantial harm, and that the petitioner has been guilty of no laches in seeking his remedy. State ex rel. Dameron v. Behrens, 11 W (2d) 426, 105 NW (2d) 866.

The writ of certiorari at common law was limited in scope, and a motion to quash, either before or after the return to the writ was made, usually raised only questions of jurisdiction or excess power set forth as error in the petition, although other errors might appear in the return; the return was taken as conclusive if responsive to the petition, and could not be impeached by collateral affidavits; and after the return was made, the court could dismiss or quash the writ or enter a judgment of affirmance. The scope and purpose of the writ of certiorari has been enlarged by statute, and it is now used, in various instances where there is an applicable statute, as a method of appeal to determine, not only the jurisdiction of a municipal board or agency, but also to review the action of such a board as arbitrary, unreasonable, or discriminatory, and sometimes to decide the merits of the action. Lakeshore Development Corp. v. Plan Comm. 12 W (2d) 560, 107 NW (2d) 590.

In the absence of special statutory provisions, before the court will grant a writ of certiorari it must appear that, (1) there has been some error committed, (2) the error has caused substantial harm, and (3) the petitioner has been guilty of no laches in seeking his remedy. The return to a writ of certiorari is merely a certification of the record of the proceedings sought to be reviewed by the petition and, unlike an answer to a complaint, the return does not consist of denials and affirmative defenses; hence a motion to quash the writ would still be the proper procedure to employ to raise the issue of laches, even if a return to the writ were made. Consolidated Apparel Co. v. Common Council, 14 W (2d) 31, 109 NW (2d) 486.

252.05 Seals. The circuit courts in the several counties shall have seals, and they may direct and from time to time alter the inscriptions and devices thereon; and the respective county boards shall furnish such seals as shall be ordered; and when any such court shall be unprovided with a seal the judge may authorize the use of any temporary seal or of any device by way of seal until a seal shall be so provided. The seals now in use by said courts shall continue to be the seals thereof until others shall be provided according to law.

252.06 Judicial circuits. The state is divided into judicial circuits, numbered and comprising the county or counties, respectively, as specified in the subsequent paragraphs of this section. At any term in any county which is by law a special term for any other county or counties, all business may be done arising in such other county or counties, which might be done at a term in the county where the business arose except the trial of issues of fact by a jury in cases other than those arising in actions of quo warranto and mandamus, and excepting also the trial of issues of fact in actions made local by law and arising in some county other than the one in which such special term is held. All orders, findings and judgments made, and papers filed in connection therewith at any special term, shall be authenticated by the clerk of such court and filed and entered of record in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the action or proceeding is pending; and no entries need be made in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of any other county.

Such papers, so certified, shall be inclosed by such clerk in an envelope, sealed by him, directed to the clerk of the circuit court of the county where such special term is to be or is being held, and may be transmitted by mail or by the hand of any person selected by such clerk; and after the trial or hearing of such action or proceeding the clerk last above named shall in like manner remit the same to the clerk of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending; but before any clerk shall be obliged to transmit any such papers he shall be paid all necessary postage, and the clerk remitting the same shall also be paid his fees in such action or proceeding.

252.14 Court commissioners. (1) In each county the circuit and county judges shall appoint such number of court commissioners as the proper transaction of business requires subject to the following exception: in counties having a population of 200,000 or more each circuit judge may appoint not more than 2 such commissioners and each county judge may appoint not more than one such commissioner, and in counties having a population of less than 200,000 each judge shall, as nearly as possible, appoint an equal number of commissioners within the county. In all counties such appointments shall be subject to the approval of a majority of the circuit judges of such county and a majority of the county judges of such county. Appointments shall be in writing and shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court. All court commissioners appointed after May 1, 1953, other than official court reporters or persons who have served as official court reporters in any court of record in this state for a period of not less than 5 years, shall be attorneys licensed to practice in this state except in counties where a sufficient number of such licensed attorneys are not available. Each judge shall have power at will and without cause to remove any court commissioner appointed by him or by his predecessor in office. The term of each court commissioner, unless removed by the judge, shall continue until the expiration of the term of the judge who appointed him and until the successor of such commissioner is appointed and qualified. Each commissioner before entering upon the duties of his office shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same duly certified, together with his appointment, in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county for which he is appointed.

(2) In all counties, retired circuit judges appointed to act as conciliators pursuant to s. 269.70 may be appointed court commissioners, in addition to those appointed under sub. (1). The term of court commissioners appointed to act as conciliators under s. 269.70 shall continue until a successor is appointed and qualifies.

(3) Any former judge of an inferior court of record of this state shall be eligible to appointment as a court commissioner, by any judge authorized by this section to make such appointment, in addition to those specified in sub. (1).

attendance of witnesses; administer oaths and affidavits; take depositions and testimony when authorized by law or rule or order of any court within its jurisdiction; and certify and report said depositions and testimony.

(2) CERTIFICATION OF RECORD FOR REVIEW OF HIS RULINGS. The commissioner may at any time certify the record taken on a deposition to the court for review of such of his rulings as he indicates; he shall certify it on motion of a party at the conclusion of the taking, noting the rulings which either party desires reviewed. If the court orders a person to answer questions which were not answered on the deposition, such matters may be further developed on return of the record.

(3) ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, ETC. He may take and certify acknowledgments; state accounts referred to him by the court; and fix the amount and sufficiency of bail.

(4) WRITS. He may allow writs of habeas corpus, certiorari, ne exeat and alternative writs of mandamus; and may grant injunctions except in the cases mentioned in section 133.07 (2).

(5) POWER AND RESTRICTIONS ON POWER TO MAKE ORDERS. He has the powers and is subject to the restrictions thereon of a circuit judge at chambers; but when the authorization is to the presiding judge or the circuit judge—using such words of designation—a court commissioner cannot act.

(6) PUNISH CONTEMPTS. He has power concurrent with that of a circuit judge at chambers to punish disobedience of his lawful orders made in proceedings pending before him, but subject to review by the court in which the proceeding is pending.

(7) RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS; WHEN FILED. He shall keep a record of proceedings before him and at the expiration of his term shall deliver such record and all his official papers to the clerk of the circuit court.
