SUBCHAPTER I.
GENERAL PROVISIONS.

15.001 Declaration of policy. (1) THREE BRANCHES OF GOVERNMENT. The "republican form of government" guaranteed by the U.S. constitution contemplates the separation of powers within state government among the legislative, the executive and the judicial branches of the government. The legislative branch has the broad objective of determining policies and programs and review of program performance for programs previously authorized, the executive branch carries out the programs and policies and the judicial branch has the responsibility for adjudicating any conflicts which might arise from the interpretation or application of the laws. It is a traditional concept of American government that the 3 branches are to function separately, without intermingling of authority, except as specifically provided by law.

(2) GOALS OF EXECUTIVE BRANCH ORGANIZATION. (a) As the chief administrative officer of the state, the governor should be provided with the administrative facilities and the authority to carry out the functions of his office efficiently and effectively within the policy limits established by the legislature.

(b) The administrative agencies which comprise the executive branch should be consolidated into a reasonable number of departments and independent agencies consistent with executive capacity to administer effectively at all levels.

(c) The integration of the agencies in the executive branch should be on a functional basis, so that programs can be co-ordinated.

(d) Each agency in the executive branch should be assigned a name commensurate with the scope of its program responsibilities, and should be integrated into one of the departments or independent agencies of the executive branch as closely as the conflicting goals of administrative integration and responsiveness to the legislature will permit.

(3) GOALS OF CONTINUING REORGANIZATION. Structural reorganization should be a continuing process through careful executive and legislative appraisal of the placement of proposed new programs and the co-ordination of existing programs in response to changing emphasis or public needs, and should be consistent with the following goals:

(a) The organization of state government should assure its responsiveness to popular control. It is the goal of reorganization to improve legislative policy-making capability and to improve the administrative capability of the executive to carry out these policies.

(b) The organization of state government should facilitate communication between citizens and government. It is the goal of reorganization through co-ordination of related programs in function-oriented departments to improve public understanding of government programs and policies and to improve the relationships between citizens and administrative agencies.

(c) The organization of state government shall assure efficient and effective administration of the policies established by the legislature. It is the goal of reorganization to promote efficiency by improving the management and co-ordination of state services and by eliminating overlapping activities.

15.01 Definitions. In this chapter:

(1) "Department" means the principal administrative agency within the executive branch of Wisconsin state government, but does not include the independent agencies under subch. III.

(2) "Division," "bureau," "section" and "unit" means the subunits of a department, whether specifically created by law or created by the head of the department for the more economic and efficient administration and operation of the programs assigned to the department.

(3) "Head of the department" means the constitutional officer, commission, secretary or part-time policy board, in charge of a department.

(4) "Commission" means a 3-man governing body in charge of a department or independent agency or of a division or other subunit within a department. A Wisconsin group created for participation in a continuing interstate body shall be known as a "commission," but is not a commission for purposes of s. 15.06.

(5) (a) "Board" means a part-time body functioning as the policy-making unit for a department or independent agency or a part-time body with policy-making or quasi-judicial powers.

(b) "Examining board" means a part-time body which sets standards of professional competence and conduct for the profession under its supervision, prepares, conducts and grades the examinations of prospective new practitioners, grants licenses, investigates complaints of alleged unprofessional conduct and performs other functions assigned to it by law.

(6) "Council" means a part-time body appointed to function on a continuing basis for the study, and recommendation of solutions and policy alternatives, of the problems arising in a specified functional area of state government.

(7) "Committee" means a part-time body appointed to study a specific problem and to recommend a solution or policy alternative with respect to that problem, and intended to terminate on the completion of its assignment. Because of their temporary nature, committees shall be created by session law rather than by statute.

15.02 Offices, departments and independent agencies. The constitutional offices, administrative departments and independent agencies which comprise the executive branch of Wisconsin state government are structured as follows:

(1) SEPARATE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state and state treasurer each head a staff to be termed the "office" of the respective constitutional officer, but the office of the governor shall be known as the "executive office."

(2) PRINCIPAL ADMINISTRATIVE UNITS. The principal administrative unit of the executive branch is a "department" or an "independent agency." Each such unit shall bear a title beginning with the words "State of Wisconsin" and continuing with "department of ...." or with the name of the independent agency. A department may be headed by a constitutional officer, a secretary, a 3-man commission or a part-time policy-making board.

(3) INTERNAL STRUCTURE. (a) The secretary of each department may, subject to sub. (4), establish the internal structure within the office of secretary so as to best suit the purposes of his department.

(b) For field operations, departments may establish district or area offices which may cut across divisional lines of responsibility.

(c) For their internal structure, all departments shall adhere to the following standard terms, and independent agencies are encouraged to review their internal structure and to adhere as much as possible to the following standard terms:

1. The principal subunit of the department is the "division." Each division shall be headed by an "administrator."

2. The principal subunit of the division is the "bureau." Each bureau shall be headed by a "director."

3. If further subdivision is necessary, bureaus may be divided into subunits which shall be known as "sections" and which shall be headed by "chiefs" and sections may be divided into subunits which shall be known as "units" and which shall be headed by "supervisors."

(4) INTERNAL ORGANIZATION AND ALLOCATION OF FUNCTIONS. The head of each department or independent agency shall, subject to the approval of the governor or, where applicable, the co-ordinating council for higher education, establish the internal organization of the department or independent agency and allocate and reallocate duties and functions not assigned by law to an officer or any subunit of the department or independent agency to promote economic and efficient administration and operation of the department or independent agency.

15.03 Attachment for limited purposes.

Any division, commission or board attached under this section to a department or independent agency or a specified division thereof shall be a distinct unit of that department, independent agency or specified division. Any division, commission or board so attached shall exercise its powers, duties and functions prescribed by law, including rule-making, licensing and regulation, and operational planning within the area of program responsibility of the division, commission or board, independently of the head of the department or independent agency, but budgeting, program co-ordination and related management functions shall be performed under the direction and supervision of the head of the department or independent agency.

15.04 Heads of departments and independent agencies; powers and duties. Each head of a department or independent agency shall:

Members of councils and committees created under this general authority shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties and, if such reimbursement is made, such reimbursement in the case of an officer or employe of this state who represents his agency as a member of such a council or committee shall be paid by the agency which pays his salary.

(4) BIENNIAL REPORT. Submit a report in November of each odd-numbered year to the governor and the legislature on the operations of his department or independent agency during the preceding biennium, and projecting the goals and objectives of the department or independent agency as developed for the program budget report. Any department or independent agency may issue such additional reports on its findings and recommendations as its operations require, but the coordinating council for higher education shall so report every 12 months.

(5) SEAL. Have authority to adopt a seal for the department or independent agency.

(6) BONDS. Have authority to require that any officer or employe of the department or independent agency give an official bond under ch. 19, if the secretary of administration agrees that the position held by such officer or employe requires bonding.

This subsection also applies to the attorney general and to the state superintendent of public instruction.

(3) EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT. Each secretary may appoint, outside the classified service, an executive assistant to serve at his pleasure. This paragraph does not apply to the commissioner of insurance nor to the members, except the chairman, of the tax appeals commission.
