752.31 Disposition of cases. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the court of appeals shall sit in panels of 3 judges to dispose of cases on their merits.

(2) Appeals to or other proceedings in the court of appeals in the following types of cases shall be decided as specified in sub. (3):

(a) Cases under ch. 799.

(b) Municipal ordinance violation cases.

(c) Cases involving violations of traffic regulations, as defined in s. 345.20 (1) (b), or nonmoving traffic violations, as defined in s. 345.28 (1), and cases under s. 343.305 and ch. 351.

(d) Cases under chs. 51 and 55.

(e) Cases under ch. 48.

(f) Misdemeanors.

(g) Cases involving civil forfeitures.

(3) A case specified under sub. (2) shall be decided by one court of appeals judge, except that any party on appeal or other proceeding in the court of appeals may move in writing to the chief judge of the court of appeals that the case be decided by a 3-judge panel. The chief judge may grant or deny the request ex parte. Any appeal which is decided by a single court of appeals judge may be heard in the county where the case or action originated if any party so requests.

(4) If a request for a 3-judge panel is granted under sub. (3), the district attorney handling the case under s. 59.47 (7) shall transfer all necessary files and papers relating to the case to the attorney general.

Judicial Council Note, 1979: Sub. (2) is amended to clarify that the judge in those cases in which a single court of appeals judge determines the case also has the authority to issue any necessary writs required in the case. The term "other proceedings" includes petitions for supervisory writs and original jurisdiction prerogative writs. Sub. (2) has also been amended to clarify that, in cases decided by a single court of appeals judge, the case is decided by the judge rather than heard. Some single-judge appeals are not heard as oral argument may not take place in the case.

Sub. (3) is amended to clarify that a single-judge appeal is decided rather than heard by the judge. The prior statutory provision that, upon a timely request, a case specified in sub. (2) shall actually be heard in the county where the case or action originated remains unchanged. Language has also been added to sub. (3) to clarify that the procedure to request the chief judge of the court of appeals to have a single-judge case be decided by a 3-judge panel also applies to other proceedings in the court of appeals, which may include petitions for supervisory writs and original jurisdiction prerogative writs. [Bill 396-S]

Judicial Council Note, 1981: Sub. (2) is amended to provide that cases under ch. 55, like cases under ch. 51, are decided as specified in sub. (3) and to clarify that cases under s. 343.305 are also decided as specified in sub. (3). Cases under ch. 55 and forfeitures are to be decided in the same manner as the other types of cases specified in sub. (2). [Bill 737-A]

Judicial Council Note, 1985: Sub. (2) (c) is amended to clarify that appeals in habitual traffic offender cases may be decided by one court of appeals judge. [85 Act 102]

752.35 Discretionary reversal. In an appeal to the court of appeals, if it appears from the record that the real controversy has not been fully tried, or that it is probable that justice has for any reason miscarried, the court may reverse the judgment or order appealed from, regardless of whether the proper motion or objection appears in the record and may direct the entry of the proper judgment or remit the case to the trial court for entry of the proper judgment or for a new trial, and direct the making of such amendments in the pleadings and the adoption of such procedure in that court, not inconsistent with statutes or rules, as are necessary to accomplish the ends of justice.

History: 1977 c. 187.

See note to 111.36, citing Chicago & N.W.R.R. v. Labor & Ind. Rev. Comm. 91 W (2d) 462, 283 NW (2d) 603 (Ct. App. 1979).

In relying solely on affidavits of persons who could have been produced at postconviction hearing but were not, there was insufficient basis on which court of appeals could have exercised its discretion. State v. McConnohie, 113 W (2d) 362, 334 NW (2d) 903 (1983).

Court of appeals erred as matter of law in granting new trial. Although juror incompletely responded to material questions on voir dire, litigant failed to demonstrate that juror was more probably than not biased against litigant. Criteria for discretionary reversal discussed. State v. Wyss, 124 W (2d) 681, 370 NW (2d) 745 (1985).

752.37 Enforcement of judgments and determinations.

The court of appeals has all power and authority to enforce its judgments and determinations and to exercise its jurisdiction.

History: 1977 c. 187.

752.41 Decisions. (1) In each case, the court of appeals shall provide a written opinion containing a written summary of the reasons for the decision made by the court.

(2) Officially published opinions of the court of appeals shall have statewide precedential effect.

(3) The supreme court shall determine by rule the manner in which the court of appeals determines which of its decisions shall be published.
