CHAPTER 141

AN ACT to amend section 1791n—1 of the statutes, relating to unfair discrimination in buying milk, cream and butter fat.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1791n—1 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1791n—1. Any person, firm or corporation, foreign or domestic, engaged in the business of buying milk, cream or butter fat for the purpose of manufacture, that shall intentionally, for the purpose of creating a monopoly or of destroying the business of a competitor in any locality, discriminate between different sections, communities, towns, villages or cities of this state, by buying such commodity at a higher price or rate in one section, community, town, village or city, than is paid for the same commodity by said person, firm or corporation in another section, community, town, village or city, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the actual cost of transportation from the point of purchase to the locality of manufacture, shall be deemed guilty of unfair discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared unlawful, and discrimination by any such person, firm or corporation between different sections, communities, towns, villages or cities, after making due allowances for the difference, if any, in the actual cost of transportation from the point of purchase to the locality of manufacture, shall be prima facie a violation of this section.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 1, 1917.
