CHAPTER 641

AN ACT to create subdivision (22) of section 670 of the statutes, relating to special powers of county boards to change the names of county institutions.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subdivision is added to section 670 of the statutes to read: (Section 670) (22) In counties containing a population of three hundred thousand or more, to change, by ordinance the names of its county almshouse or poor farm, hospital for insane, asylum for chronic insane, home for dependent children, county hospital, school of agriculture, tuberculosis sanatorium and all other county institutions, and to adopt names therefor which shall indicate the general nature and purpose of said institutions. Upon the adoption of said name said institution shall thereafter be known and called by the name so adopted, provided, that the failure to so designate any such institution shall not affect the validity of any commitment or of any other proceeding or transaction relating to any such institution.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved July 12, 1917.
